

Architectural drawing of a building facade. The drawing shows a long, low structure with a series of windows and a central entrance. The facade is divided into a grid of rectangular sections. The central entrance is marked by a small, dark, rectangular feature. The drawing is rendered in a simple, schematic style with black lines on a white background.

This architectural section drawing illustrates a building complex. The primary structure, labeled 'Neubau', is a multi-story building with a brick roof. It features a central vertical glass corridor and multiple windows. To the right is a lower structure labeled 'Musik-Theater' with a stage area. The drawing includes detailed floor levels (e.g., +115.82, +12.20) and a tree on the left.
